Dear <firstname>,

The YPO-WPO Social Enterprise Networks are home to members and their families who share such great passion for creating a better world that it motivates them to take action. Meet them, hear their stories, share your own ideas and discover your place in this dynamic group at the SEN Summit 2013: Build a Better World!

Members, partners and spouses are invited to gather in New York for an amazing experience.

- Hear from and connect with your SEN peers who are leading value-driven businesses and community initiatives.
- Access high-profile speakers who will deliver powerful take-home value and insights.
- Learn about and share key resources for business, community and philanthropic engagement.
- Be inspired to apply best practices to make a difference and have a positive impact on people, the planet and profits.
- Lead with like-minded members in creating a platform to build on the SEN vision.
- Build a better world as members, families and businesses.
- Celebrate this year's SEN Sustainable Award winners at a special dinner.

This is a great opportunity to learn what SEN has to offer, hear some truly incredible tales of transformation, and find a way to put your own passion to work. Sign up now!

I hope to see you in New York,
